1. The Perleberg (M 52/T 70) airfield was not occupied by air force units on 20 July 1950. The landing field was released as pasture land. Sentries wearing red-bordered black epaulets guarded the field.
2. No air force units were at the field between 30 June and 4 July 1950. The three hangars were closed. Cattle owned by civilians grazed on the landing field.
3. Cattle were grazing on the landing field on 5 July 1950. No soldiers were seen, except a sentry wearing red-bordered black epaulets. A local resident said that a few soldiers were stationed at the field and that a reoccupation of the field was expected in September 1950. No motor vehicles were seen.
4. The field was not occupied by Soviet Air Force troops on 10 and 11 July 1950. About 50 soldiers wearing red-bordered, black epaulets guarded the field. No air force motor vehicles were seen. *

25X1 * [] Comment. [] the airfield is not occupied by air force units. This confirms the last observation of March 1950. [] There are no indications that the field was abandoned by the Soviet Air Force. It is in such a condition that it can be reoccupied at any time. An intended reoccupation has not been confirmed.
